New Curtain Muslins, New Dress Goods

1500 Yards Muslins.

For curtains and bed shams. These are all new Spring patterns. It was necessary for us to buy this large quantity to get price concessions enabling us to sell them on the same low basis as last year—8c, 10c, 12 1/2c and 15c.

Dress Goods.

We have planned for the largest Spring season on Dress Goods we have ever had. Already the new goods have begun to arrive.

Crispine at 75c.

This is a special we have just received. All wool, 45 inches wide and one of the best cloths we have ever shown for the money. Black only.

Mrs. Katherine Lavelle was called to her home in Northfield this morning by the illness of her sister.

Miss Olive Sargent has returned to her work in Fitts' store after a few days' vacation spent at her home in Randolph.

The time of meeting of Crandall Post, G. A. R. has been changed from Wednesday evening to the third Saturday in the month at 7 o'clock in the afternoon. This was done to accommodate a number who are unable to be present in the evening.

The police are looking for a slim man who was seen to enter and leave the woodyard of Arthur S. Martin on Ayers street, where fire was discovered yesterday afternoon. A woman residing nearby saw him enter the yard and she and another woman saw him come out, so that the police have a fairly good description. It is thought that the slim man was responsible for the fire which did damage to the amount of five dollars.

A delightful Valentine party was given by Mr. and Mrs. George L. More and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holsington of Franklin street last evening in honor of Miss Carrie and Miss Rose More who returned tomorrow to Roxbury, N. Y., after spending several weeks in town. There were about twenty present, and what was the order of the evening, the first prize being won by Clinton L. Moore. Each person received a dainty Valentine. After which had been concluded refreshments were served.

The Altruists and their friends were very prettily entertained at a "Heart Party" last evening at the home of Mrs. E. J. Sowden, 83 Tremont street. The house was tastefully decorated with red and white hearts, crepe paper, and flowers. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and guessing contests, prizes being given to the most successful contestants. Four little maidens, each dressed as the "Queen of Hearts," served the company with dainty heart-shaped refreshments. They also presented each guest at the close of the evening with a favor in the form of a heart shaped Valentine. Much credit is due to the hostess and her committee for so delightful an evening's entertainment.

There will be a regular meeting of Hiawatha Lodge, No. 20, I. O. O. F., on Thursday evening, Feb. 15th, at 7 o'clock. The second degree will be conferred. Visitors from neighboring lodges are expected and a banquet will be served after the work. H. W. Clark, Noble Grand.

VINCITIA LODGE, No. 10, K. of P.

OLD FRIENDS

When you meet an old friend there is general satisfaction. After meeting a new "friend" you may find your pocket picked. For a solid decade Crosby's Superior, Lily White and Harvest Queen have been friends of the best cooks. They have brought health into the family and peace into the kitchen. They are milled by the Valley City Milling Company, one of the largest concerns of the Middle West—a company that is always alert for the latest in milling science and shrewdness in choice of wheat. Crosby's Superior, Lily White and Harvest Queen—these are the Flours which upon every barrel and sack bear THE UNION LABEL. Our
